

Toccoverde – Dr. Tilia Stingl de Vasconcelos

• Why Toccoverde?

The pleasure to work with excellent international experts who pursuit the same aim: discover and implement individual ways to allow our clients to achieve highest results in their business in coherence with their deepest appetency

• Services to the customer

- Providing tools for better internal organizational communication necessary to make the client’s venture successful
- Expertise and client support implementing change processes
- Analyze trans verbal structures of organizations in order to recognize new potentials
- Support the client mastering difficult inter-organizational relationship situations by opening new perspectives and solutions

• Approach in doing so – motto?

Words only make a difference if we stand behind them

• Background

- Born in Brazil, Rio de Janeiro
- Studies on computer science with business applications at the Technical University of Vienna
- Postgraduate studies in journalism at the University of Vienna
- PhD in communication science at the University of Vienna

• Experience in field

- Co-owner of a high-tech start-up,
- Management consultant (change management and productivity increase projects in German and Austrian companies), experience in finance sector (bank productivity) and experience in media sector (Austrian weekly magazine, as freelance journalist).

Toccoverde – Dr. Tilia Stingl de Vasconcelos (continued)

- Academic base/training
  - Academic at Austrian universities of applied sciences teaching business administration, systemic thinking, system theory, management studies, information management, knowledge management and change management
  - Training experience in time management, presentation, discussion mediation, basic problem solving tool (for management) and internal communication
  - Experience in organizational constellation work
- Geographical horizon
Worldwide, with particular focus Austria, Germany and Brazil
- Languages
Portuguese, German and English