

Toccoverde – Carlos Hand

- Why Toccoverde?

Toccoverde is a very serious company, whose owners are really engaged in developing new projects and solutions for their clients.

- Services to the customer

As owner of a law firm in Brazil, we may provide assistance to foreign companies wanting to start business here and/or may require reliable accompanying support for the establishment of an entity in the country.

I am specialized in providing legal advisory to companies in the food, foreign trade, pharmaceutical, information technology sectors, among others and operates in contentious issues by following-up the judicial proceedings in all jurisdictions, as well as in the consulting issues which comprise a preventive performance to avoid or minimize the impact of any judicial claims.

- Approach in doing so – motto?

'The exception proves the rule' and 'Accept the challenge and do your best'.

- Background

I graduated in 1993 in Business Administration at Pontifícia Universidade Católica de São Paulo (PUC) and further in Law at Faculdades Metropolitanas Unidas (FMU).

As lawyer I operate and manage the corporate and labor areas of a firm.

Started the career as an independent auditor of Price Waterhouse (1990); He also worked in the foreign trade and legal departments of companies in the import and export sector for more than ten years. Afterwards, he has attended several extension courses in the Corporate Law area, and started to provide services to other business sectors.

My portfolio of clients originate from Brazil, Austria, Argentina, Chile, China, Austria and Norway.
